

Animal Meals

Animals can eat many different things. Some animals eat plants. Animals that eat plants are called herbivores. Elephants and giraffes are herbivores. When you see cows and horses in a field, they are eating plants too! But many other animals eat meat. Meat-eating animals are called carnivores. How do carnivores get their food? They hunt for it! Wild animals must be good hunters. Usually, they prey on smaller or weaker animals.

1. What is the main idea of this paragraph?
 - a. Some animals eat meat
 - b. Cows and horses eat plants
 - c. Animals eat different things

2. What could another title be for this passage?
 - a. Meat Eaters
 - b. Animal Food
 - c. Wild Animals

3. List 2 kinds of animals that eat plants-

4. Why do carnivores need to be good hunters?

Name ☺ _____

Date ☺ _____

5. Write the main idea of the passage. List 2 details from the text.

